

38. IVU Welt-Vegetarier-Kongress, at the Kulturpalast Dresden 2008

Additional accommodation in Dresden

Local people gave us the addresses of the following hotels/hostels for accommodation at a reasonable price. We have not checked them and cannot give any information re. quality and service.

Most of them are not in the direct surroundings of the Kulturpalast, and you have to take into account longer walks or bus rides.

We found the prices in the internet (as of 2007). Eventually you have to pay extra for breakfast, bedlinen etc. Please check the conditions carefully before booking.

All prices are per person per night (high season).

Please book yourself. You can book via the internet.
